ENSURE YOU'RE MEETING YOUR FIRE SAFETY REQUIREMENTS

Fire safety training is a legal requirement of the Fire and Emergency NZ Regulations and must be part of an Emergency Response Plan under the Health & Safety at Work Act. It is vital that your staff are trained in fire safety, this includes the use of fire extinguishers and the role of fire wardens.

Fire safety training saves lives. By taking part in a Fire Security Services fire safety training course, you can help ensure that you protect what matters most.

VIRTUAL REALITY FIRE EXTINGUISHER TRAINING

WITH THE SAME
TECHNOLOGY
AS NZ'S
FIREFIGHTERS!

WHY CHOOSE VR TRAINING?

 Fight fire without fire - it's the safest way to learn how to extinguish fire.

 No real fire or chemicals means no negative impact on the environment.

 We use the best VR technology, providing a fully immersive experience, cementing key learnings.

 The training scenarios can be tailored to your workplace environment.

 Mistakes can be made safely, leading to optimal learning outcomes.

Once training is complete you can rest assured that you have met your legal fire safety training requirements, and all participants will receive a certificate.
